Weekly – award a few at the last practice of each week. At the season-ending party. When your team needs a pick-me-up. Create a lasting memory that your players, coaches and team parents will always remember. Put some thinking into what you write and what you say because it will make a lasting impression. Awarding these Lacrosse Certificates It doesn't hurt to use a little of your own creativity with these lacrosse award certificates. If a player had a great play, a hustle move or was excellent in practices, try to capture it on the certificate. Make sure you have a good audience when you're presenting these so you'll maximize the effect. Imagine a player hearing 20 – 30 people clapping for him or her. That's nice! And, your players will remember it. Use the "You're an All-Star" certificate as a thank-you certificate for parents, financial supporters and others who have made your season possible or at least a little better than it could have been. If you have a team website or Facebook page, you can take screen captures of the filled out certificates and post them on the pages. Or, send them along with texts to players and others to pick them up or congratulate them for a game well played. When you call players up, here's one suggestion from a coach, "Take your time. It's not a race to get done." Let your players enjoy the moment and speak for a fair amount of time. Remember, your kids might remember moments like these as much as the big wins during the season. Be expansive, call out their strengths and what they meant to the team. report this ad Subscribe to the Free Printable newsletter. (No spam, ever!)
